Dear Friends in Christ,

I wanted to send a quick note to ask for your prayers in a special way for present and forthcoming evangelism. After serving other Christian organizations for the last month we are once again involved in our own projects. So, we need your prayer support!

We will be ministering in a city called Lipova where we will set up the tent. It looks like we will have a very close collaboration with the local churches! We have received also favor from the mayor as we will be able to set our tent up in the centrally located football stadium. We will start to set the tent up on August 20 and begin the meetings on the 23rd through September 7th. We will once again preach through the Ten Commandments in an evangelistic way.

After that we will return for some follow up meetings in Nadlac, where we had the tent set up in May. Please pray that all will go well with the setting up of the tent, and that God would anoint us with His Holy Spirit and power.

Also please rejoice with me. On August 18 at about 7AM my daughter, Vanessa, who serves the Lord together with her husband, Sasha, in Sarajevo, BIH, gave birth to a baby boy! Both the baby and the mother are well. Although he was three weeks premature, he weighed about 8 lbs. His name is Jack Henry (my middle name) Jezdimir. We praise the Lord for His mercy.

May the Lord bless you, and continue to use you for His glory and honor. We love and appreciate you.

Your brother in Christ,

Jared Worby
