Jesus Christ is the Answer

This Friday we will begin ministry here in Romania by moving our tent to the region of Oltenia, which is in southern Romania. As I have shared before this is a big step of faith for us, and we really do covet your prayers. We will start with an interdenominational evangelization in Slatina. Just two weeks ago we were there basically for our last pastor's meeting as well as for a common worship service with the

a new phase in our participating churches.

SLATINA AS WE PROMOTE UNITY TO PREPARE FOR THE TENT EVANGELISM

There was and is a certain air of excitement and apprehension in the churches as this evangelization will be something very new for the believers.

After Slatina we pray to be able to set the tent up in as many as 4 other locations in Oltenia. We will really need God's grace to be able to do all this. There is such need there; there are so many people who need to hear the gospel. Please pray!

I, personally, really need to ask for your prayers. I have to report that I am having problems again with my prostate. At the beginning of March, here in Romania I went for an annual PSA blood test. Without going into the details the result was not good, and in fact it was rather bad. I returned to Hungary to the doctor who treated me last year to show him the results. To say the least he was shocked. He put me on antibiotics for two weeks and then two weeks after finishing that treatment had me do the blood test again, but in Hungary. A week later the results came back even worse than the blood test in Romania. So, he suggested that I would have a biopsy done which I have scheduled for next week. I did visit very recently a doctor here in Arad, and he basically had the same shocked reaction. Both of these doctors examined me physically and said that they could not detect any cancer from that. But the blood test is the thing that seems to strongly indicate a problem. At this juncture I am considering what to do. I can have the biopsy done in Hungary as programmed, or here in Arad. I am considering what God would have me to do. So as you can see, I would very much appreciate your prayers, and any word from the Lord that you might receive.

God bless you!
